

University of 8th May, 1945, Guelma
Faculty of Letters and Languages
Department of Letters and English Language

Teaching English as a Foreign Language at the Algerian University
14th, February, 2017

CALL FOR PAPERS

One of the main responsibilities of any university is to provide the society with a graduate who is able to use the knowledge he acquires throughout his life for both the personal and social benefit. However, the last few years have seen rapid changes in both the context and nature of higher education all over the world including Algeria. Hence, the study day intends to shed some light on a number of the related topics such as the following:

Tracks:

- ❖ Inclusion of culture(s) in Language Teaching Courses
- ❖ Master's Programs in Algeria
- ❖ Algerian Literature
- ❖ Incorporation of ICTs in Classrooms
- ❖ Multiculturalism in Language Classrooms

Important Dates:

Abstracts' Submission: 15th, January, 2017
Notification of Acceptance: 22nd, January, 2017
Study Day Date: 14th, February, 2017

Scientific Committee:

Pr. Abdelhak ELAGOUNE - 8th, May, 1945 University, Guelma
Pr. Ladi TOULGUI - 8th, May, 1945 University, Guelma
Ms. Samiya HARIDI - 8th, May, 1945 University, Guelma
Ms. Khawla BENDJEMIL - 8th, May, 1945 University, Guelma

Organizing Committee:

Ms. Hasna HENEINIA
Ms. Khawla BENDJEMIL
Ms. Sabrina LESSOUED
Ms. Samiya HARIDI

In order to be considered, please send an abstract of 150 words as an email attachment to Ms. Khawla BENDJEMIL at kbendje@siue.edu

*This study day also offers the chance to participate for all Master I and Master II students who have completed research projects or have written research papers in related topics to the study day.